REPAY Provides Seamless Payments for Megasys' Consumer Lending Platform

May 24, 2022

Through the technology integration, lenders will be able to accept and manage installment and auto loan payments on the Megasys system

ATLANTA--(BUSINESS WIRE)--May 24, 2022-- Repay Holdings Corporation (NASDAQ: RPAY) ("REPAY"), a leading provider of vertically-integrated payment solutions, today announced an integration with Megasys, a loan management software system specializing in the consumer finance industry. Through the integration, Megasys' customer base of consumer and auto lenders will be able to accept electronic payments through REPAY's omni-channel payment platform.

Utilizing the integration, lenders can provide a more convenient payment experience that allows consumers to make loan repayments via ACH and card through online, mobile, IVR, and text channels at times that work best for them. The seamless data flow between the two systems, along with access to robust data and reporting tools, will enable Megasys' customers to better manage cashflow and create more efficient workflows and reconciliation processes.

"Megasys' experience in the consumer finance industry makes them a natural partner for REPAY, as the team deeply understands the importance of a convenient and secure payment ecosystem," said Susan Perlmutter, CRO at REPAY. "We're looking forward to helping the company provide the best possible service to consumer and auto lenders across the country and will continue to work diligently to deliver solutions that enhance the payment experience for both businesses and consumers."

"REPAY's expertise in the industry and their commitment to providing great service to our customers will add value to our comprehensive product offering," said Theo Austin, President & CEO at Megasys. "With our new integration, we're ready to offer a more holistic payment experience for lenders and their customers, while helping businesses improve their bottom line and stay competitive in a challenging climate."
